Reference:-

The Prohibition Station House Mangalore South was first located in a corner of the town on a rent of Rs.20/- per mensem. It was ordered to be shifted to the central place of the town so that it might have an effective check over crime. The prohibition station house was shifted to the new building on 3-7-51.

2.The Deputy Commissioner,Southern Division has now submitted the Executive Engineer's certificate and Executive Authority of the Municipality fixing a rent of Rs.60/- per mensem for the new building. The certificates are herewith submitted to Government for their perusal and return.

3.In the circumstances the Board requests that the Government may be pleased to accord sanction for the payment of a rent of Rs.60/- per mensem for the private building now occupied by the prohibition station house Mangalore South from 3-7-51 till it is vacated as a special case.
